MAGEE THE MURDERER.

STORY OF A CHECKERED CAREER.

Close of a Stormy Life With Wholesale Murder and Suicide--The Man Who Killed Family and Himself.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 12.--In the case of Captain Henry Clay Magee, who murdered his daughter and wife, and then killed himself in this county, a verdict of murder and suicide was recorded by the Coroner's Jury, and the bodies of the victims were buried at Westport.

Magee was formerly wealthy, but has been in moderate circumstances since he removed to this county. His estate is worth perhaps $10,000. Mrs. Magee was a Miss Skinner and is said to have descended from a very highly respectable family of that name in Harrison county, Ky. She and Magee were married thirty-three years ago. Magee was fifty-five years old at the time of his death and he had been a resident of Jackson county for about five years. Near Cynthiana, Ky., where he formerly resided, he had a fine home and a large farm just adjoining the town. His residence stood on an eminence overlooking the town, and it was upon his farm that the famous Abdallah race course was situated. His business was dealing in fine horses. He was very successful in that line, and at the time of his death he was the owner of several good horses then upon the farm. At one time, in Kentucky, he owned a famous trotter, Jennie Strideaway, and for this animal he once refused $17,000. She afterward became crippled and he sold her for $1,700. When he lived in Kentucky and was in the horse-business he went every summer to Saratoga, Long Branch, Coney Island and other resorts, and left his family at home. At these places he would spend three or four months, but he always gave his family permission to purchase whatever they desired at the stores, and he settled promptly upon his return. In the days when he was in fine circumstances he placed no restrictions on his family expenditures, but when his means became more circumscribed he insisted on economy. One reason why he left Kentucky was on account of a serious complication in which he became involved. During a political fight Magee shot at his adversary but killed the wrong man. For this he was tried, and after strong efforts regained his liberty, with judicial approval. After his acquittal he disposed of his property, and coming to Missouri purchased a portion of the Plunkett farm, and the tract he got consisted of 100 acres. When in Cynthiana he used to mount his horse and ride to town every day, remaining there till the afternoon, talking in the stores and on the street corners. When in Jackson county he did the same thing in Independence. He is said to have been an almost incessant talker. During the war he was a captain in the Confederate service.

A GENEROUS HUSBAND.

He Forgives His Faithless Wife For the Sake of Their Little Children.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 12.--About two months ago Mrs. Edward Hurlman, of this place, eloped with Henry Wagner, a former lover, a companion and fellow laborer of her husband, and a boarder in the family. She took the two younger children with her, and left three behind to be cared for by the deserted husband. The fugitives were traced to New York. They soon left that city for the West, however, and all traces of them were lost. Recently the woman was heard from at Detroit, Mich. She had been treated with shameful cruelty and was homeless, friendless and without money, and appealed to her brothers to West for her, but could not find her and came back alone. The broken-hearted husband expressed a willingness to take her back for the sake of their little children, but his scanty means had been reduced by loss of employment while brooding over the faithlessness of his wife, and he could not send for her. Accordingly last week another brother of the runaway woman went out, found her and returned, bringing her and her children with him. They were met at the train by the husband, who forgave the woman and welcomed her back. Wagner has gone to the Nevada silver mines.

FANNIE'S FATE.

Further Facts of an Interesting Nature Developed.

DANBURY, Conn., Nov. 12.--The death of Miss Fannie C. Lum, daughter of Rev. Samuel Y. Lum, is the town talk, and opinion varies as to Dr. Lacey's part in it. Miss Lum was an accomplished and prepossessing, slightly built young lady thirty years of age, widely known and esteemed in her father's parish and a member of his church. Who her betrayer is will perhaps never be known to any one except her father and mother, and they will not divulge the name of the guilty party. Mrs. Lum claims that Fannie was ruined in the passage during the absence of her husband and herself from home one afternoon last May.

"But," continued Mrs. Lum, "she would not tell me the name of the man who had ruined her ruin, for fear of her father's wrath. I had known of Fannie's condition for about two weeks. She told me to relieve her mind. It had tormented her for five months and she was in moral fear lest her father should learn of it. She could not live if he knew it."

KILLED HIS FATHER.

The Brutal Deed of a Young Pennsylvanian.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 12.--News has been received here from West Lebanon, a small village in Indiana county, of the murder of Wm. Sarver, and probably fatal wounding of his housekeeper, Belle Kelly, by Jos. Sarver. Joseph accused his father of running in debt, and on Saturday night extinguished the lamp in the sitting room and discharged his revolver several times, but without injuring any person. The father retreated to the house of a neighbor, and as he was about to enter the door, a ball from Joseph's revolver went crashing through his skull, killing him instantly. Joseph then turned toward his home, saying he had "settled with him," and would now "settle with her," meaning the house-keeper, whom he shot in two places. Her recovery is doubtful. Last evening the murderer was arrested in a corn-field several miles from West Lebanon. He is 34, married, but does not live with his wife.

SLEEPING CAR RESPONSIBILITY.

Decision of an Interesting Law Case in Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 12.--The case of Gardner vs. the Pullman Sleeping Car Company, was decided in the Supreme Court yesterday. The following is the opinion of the Court:

Conceding the company not liable as common carriers, yet the responsibility degree of care is imposed on the company. The object in taking passage in the car is to sleep. While in this helpless condition, the duty rests upon the company to provide care of the valuables of passengers in preventing them from being stolen.

Baby Fed to a Dog.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 12.--A boy named Smith yesterday found blood on the ground around a dog-kennel. He told his mother, who made an investigation, and found a towel clotted with blood and pieces of human flesh near the kennel, and the footprints of a woman. Examination showed that the blood was that of an infant, abortively born or killed after birth, and thrown to the dog to devour. Our citizens are much excited over the horrible affair, and the coroner is trying to trace out the perpetrator of the crime.

Condition of the River.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 12.--The stage of the water at points above Pittsburgh is as follows: Pittsburgh, 7 feet 10 inches and rising; Oil City, 2 feet and stationary; Parkersburg, 2 feet and falling; Brownsville, 10 feet 6 inches and stationary; Lock Number Four, 12 feet 6 inches and rising; Rice's Landing, 12 feet 11 inches and falling; Morgantown, 6 feet and falling; Greensboro, 14 feet 6 inches and falling.

Bismarck Seriously Ill.

BERLIN, Nov. 12.--It is reported that the illness of Prince Bismarck has increased to so serious an extent that his friends have become alarmed at the severity of this attack of jaundice. Notwithstanding the fact that Dr. Struck, of Berlin, is at the bedside of the Prince at Friederichsruhe, a dispatch has been sent to Munich summoning Dr. Schwinning, another of the Prince's physicians.

Brutal Dog Fight.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.--Sunday night fifty sporting men with the Chicago dog "Jack," thirty-eight pounds, met a party from the town of Lake with the dog "Billy," thirty-nine pounds. The contest was for $250 a side and it was very brutal and lasted an hour and a half. Billy was carried out dead and Jack was severely punished but will recover.

A Town on Fire.

POTTSVILLE, Pa.--The town of Shenandoah is on fire. Steamers have been sent from here to render assistance. A terrible wind storm prevails, and a disastrous conflagration is feared.

TEMPERANCE MUSCLE.

BEATING THE PEDESTRIAN RECORD.

Mr. Keeble's Great Feat to Show What Total Abstinence Will Do--Walking 1,025 Miles in 456 Hours.

LONDON, Nov. 12.--Mr. Keeble, the noted temperance advocate, has become quite a lion among the temperance and church people. He completed yesterday, in the city, one of the greatest feats of physical endurance on record. His accomplishment was undertaken for the purpose of proving to the world that the physical system of a sound man, who never uses alcohol, is capable of sustaining greater and more protracted fatigue than is the physical system of an equally sound man accustomed to its use, even in moderation. Mr. Keeble had, in most of his temperance lectures, insisted on this point, and generally challenged his opponents to undertake a test with him. Being a man of fine physique, his challenges were not accepted. He then determined to exemplify in his own powers of endurance the virtues of temperance, choosing that because he had no experience, either as a professional or amateur pedestrian, and regarding walking as the simplest form of physical exertion. He undertook to walk 1,000 miles within 456 hours, and to average during the entire period two and one-quarter miles per hour; no person but himself believed he would ever succeed, but he said he would, because he meant to be in the interest of religion and humanity. Yesterday he finished his thousandth mile in the allotted time, and ended apparently fresh, and certainly in excellent spirits and health. A dispute arose at the completion of the next to the last mile, growing out of the decimal difficulty in adjusting the time in the last mile to the total distance to be covered, and Mr. Keeble continued walking until the dispute was settled. It was referred to sporting judges, who happened to be at the time in another part of the city, and before the decision, which was in favor of the pedestrian, was delivered, Mr. Keeble had walked 456 hours and covered a total of 1,025 miles, finishing in good condition. An admirer of Mr. Keeble has offered to back him against any other pedestrian in the world in an attempt to walk 2,500 miles in 1,000 hours, and make two and a quarter miles in each and every hour.

THEY NEVER DIE.

A Minnesota Family Which Simply Dries Up and Blows Away.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 12.--Mortimer Daneher aged 121 years, died at the residence of his son in Derrymane, Lesueur county, Minn. Mr. Daneher was the last surviving brother of a remarkable family which for downright longevity, surpasses anything in the records of modern times. Not only this, but in another county Mr. Daneher's mother died in the 101st year, his eldest brother at 108 years, his second at 117 years, 7 months and twenty days, and himself soon after at the age of 121 years.

The father was the shortest lived of the family, having died at the age of 87 years. The combined ages of the three brothers reached 346 years, including the mother, 446 years, and taking in the father, 536 years. Mr. Daneher has been a remarkably healthy and active man, never having been really ill in his life. Late, however, he has, through sheer old age, been confined more or less to his bed, but was never ill--even got up and dressed himself on Wednesday last. The old gentleman came from the County Clare, Ireland, and could speak nothing outside of the Celtic tongue of his ancestors. Mr. Daneher possessed the full use of all his faculties till the very last.

GALES ON THE LAKE.

Many Vessels Wrecked and Lives Reported Lost.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.--A terrific gale prevailed on Lake Erie last night. Several vessels were wrecked and it is reported that a number of lives were lost.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 12.--A gale is blowing and the wind is too great to allow the coal tugs to go out. By the time the gales leaves the water will be down again. So there will be nothing gained by the raise. The steamers, Josh Cook, Onward and Engle with tugs, started out, but it is not known how far they got.

The Coal City and Joe Walton started early this morning, but were compelled to tie up below the city. There is not much coal to go out anyhow. Captain E. F. Lester, of the steamer Knox, was killed at Lock No. 2 this morning by being crushed between two floats.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.--The steam barge John T. Johnston, with 900 tons of ore, from Escanaba to Cleveland, is ashore here in a bad condition. The crew were taken off by the life saving crew.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.--The heaviest storm of wind ever known on Lake Erie has been raging here since 6 o'clock last night. The waves dashed for a hundred feet over docks, breakwater and water-works' crib. The schooner John T. Johnston drifted ashore late last night, and the captain ordered the vessel scuttled. She is loaded with iron ore, and is a total wreck.

The Ford Blackguards.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 12.--"Charley" Ford, fears his brother "Bob," has met with foul play. He was last heard from in New York on October fourteenth. He had money and valuables to the amount of $2,500.

Pagan Persecution.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.--Precautions have been taken for the protection of Lee Wing and Lem Lam, Chinamen, baptised in the Eighth Presbyterian Church last night, their pagan countrymen having threatened them with personal violence.

Grave Robber Convicted.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 12.--Henry Thompson, a medical student, has been convicted of robbing the grave of Edwin R. Haymon, a prominent citizen, who died in March, 1883, and using the body for dissection. He will be sentenced to-day.

A WEDDING POSTPONED.

Mr. Henry Herbert Sells for Ireland Without His Bride.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.--Another postponement is announced upon the authority of the family, of the wedding between Mr. Henry Herbert, of Muckross, Ireland, and Miss Rebecca N. Williams, daughter of George Hawkins Williams, President of the Maryland Senate, which had been fixed for Monday, 12th instant, at St. Paul's church, this city. While riding into town from Mr. Williams's country home on the 1st instant Miss William's horse shied at a dog in the road, and in her effort to keep her seat she received a very severe sprain of the back, so severe that on arriving at her house in town she was obliged to go at once to her room. Her physician has ordered her to be kept perfectly quiet, and it is more than probable that she will be confined to her room for the next six weeks. The wedding has accordingly been postponed until early in January. Mr. Herbert had taken passage for Europe in the Germanic, sailing on the 17th, and hoped to have taken his bride at once to Muckross Abbey in order to meet his relatives, as well as to arrange many matters relating to his estates, which have been neglected during his stay in this country. He changed his plans and sailed to-day for Ireland to perfect his arrangements, and expects to return here by Christmas.

A MOONSHINER.

A Wisconsin Manufacturer of Potatoes in Limbo.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 12.--Matthias Koch, a resident of Manitowoc county, was brought in from Manitowoc by Deputy United States Marshal Marshall on a charge of running an illicit whisky still. Koch has confessed that he had been engaged for several years in manufacturing whisky from wild oats, the output of his miniature distillery being about two gallons a day. The still was situated on the farm where Koch lives, eight miles north of Manitowoc. A deputy collector from Sheboygan attempted to "get" the still last week, but Koch and some comrades made it so warm for him with pitchforks and other weapons that the collector was glad to get away. The moonshiner was taken before Commissioner Bloodgood for examination, and held for trial in bonds of $1,000. Thus far there is no evidence that Koch sold any of his illicit manufacture, but as it disappeared in some way the supposition is that he has been regularly supplying saloons in that section.

BRUTAL ASSAULT.

A Lady Violently Attacked by a Farm Laborer.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Nov. 11.--The wife of James Charlton, a farmer residing in Woodcock township, was assaulted by James Ward, the hired man, and seriously if not fatally injured. Mr. Charlton had gone to the woods when Ward went to the house and assaulted Mrs. Charlton. She fought the villain quite successfully, when he became desperate and seized a large carving knife and inflicted two severe wounds on Mrs. Charlton, one in the right side and the other in the face. An eight year old daughter gave prompt alarm and the desperado was pursued and arrested, flourishing the bloody knife in the faces of his captors. Ward, who is about thirty years old, was committed to jail on a charge of assault with intent to kill. He refuses to talk about the crime and acts like a madman. Physicians have hopes of Mrs. Charlton's recovery. Ward had only been employed on the farm about two weeks.

Prize-Fighters in Contempt.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.--The Bernger and Engel Brewing Company some months ago bought on a lien in the City Court against Michael Cleary and recovered a judgment against him for $323.52. On October 11 last Judge Hawes issued an order requiring Cleary to appear and be examined in supplementary proceedings. Cleary was served with the order, but failed to appear. He has been adjudged guilty of contempt of court. Tom English and John Flynn were also required by an order of the Court to appear as witnesses for the judgement creditor. They also failed to appear and have been adjudged guilty of contempt. Attachments were issued against them, and they were arrested. The accused are in custody of their counsel.

Money and Wife Both Lost.

HARTFORD, Nov. 12.--A. H. Foss is the engineer of the Charter Oak Life Building; Augustus S. Upton an operative for the American Screw Company. They were chums, and recently went to housekeeping on the mutual plan. They pooled their assets, and it worked first-rate till a few days ago, when Foss prevailed upon his wife to draw $4,000 she had in bank and convert it into Government bonds. Mrs. Foss acted on her husband's advice promptly and she turned the bonds over to him for safe keeping. Early in the week Foss left Hartford hurriedly and as Mrs. Upton discovered at the same time the natural conclusion is that they have eloped, and that the $4,000 is carrying them to some remote place.

An Unfriendly French Visitor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.--Insurance men are interested in the visit to this country of M. Nayaux, the representative of the Compagnie d'Assurance Generales of Paris, who recently arrived with the alleged object of inquiring into the American insurance system. It is believed that he comes in no friendly spirit, but with the intention, if possible, of gathering material to use in prejudicing the French public against American insurance companies. The Paris newspapers of late, notably La Patrie and Gaulois, have been engaged in a wholesale abuse of the Equitable and New York Life Insurance companies, which have established agencies in Paris and are making a strong bid for French business.

West Shore And Grand Trunk.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.--The negotiations for some time pending between the Grand Trunk and the West Shore Railroad Company have been concluded. Manager Hickson, of the Grand Trunk, who has been in this city for the past two days attending the meeting of the trunk-line presidents, had a conference at the office of the West Shore road with the officers of that company, when final arrangements were completed for running a fast through freight train over the West Shore and the Grand Trunk lines between New York and Chicago. This arrangement goes into effect until January 1, when the West Shore road will be completed.

Guarding a Bad Man.

SOCORRO, N. M., Nov. 12.--Fowler, the murderer of Cole, is still in jail. The city has been in a state of high excitement, and the jail is guarded at night by about fifty men to prevent rescue or lynching. Last night the governor had placed the city under military control and the militia is guarding the jail. Another warrant was served on Fowler, charging him with the murder of Pony Neal and Butcher Kniff Bill about two months ago. Johnnie Barnes and Francisco Vigil were arrested on the same charge, and are now in jail.

THE "SILVER SKULLS."

SAD CASE OF DIME NOVEL READING.

An Infant Loads Himself to the Gun--Wales with Fire Arms and Runs Away from Home--The Secret Society.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.--The dime novel, "Boys of America," blood-and-bludgeon literature of the day, receives in this city a rather vivid and startling side light. Bertie Gaylord, a precocious 14-year youth of the period, who takes his story of seduction, murder, piracy, and other criminal exploits and adventures as regularly as he takes his meals, is missing from the pleasant home of his parents, who move in the aristocratic circles of this city. He left home a week ago, and since that time his distracted relatives have not seen or heard of him. Previous to his departure he organized a secret society which had for its surgically suggestive title, "The Silver Skulls," and for its oath of admittance the following hair-lifting piece of pessimistic invention: "Cursed be friendship, cursed be fathers, cursed be mothers, sisters, brothers, and may the offspring of ourselves canker, blister, and decay on its dying mother's breast. May the blood of each breed pestiferous plagues, may the hair of each fall from his head, the teeth crumble in his jaws, the brains rot in his skull, the eyes canker and fall from their sockets, and the fingers grow palsied if we ever hear the secrets of the Skulls. So do I swear death to our enemies, life to the skulls." Jason Caskey, a boy who in some ways incurred the wrath of the Silver Skulls a short time ago, received a warning written in red ink. A glaring skull and cross-bones decorated the paper and below was a bloody hand, with the word "Death" written on it. The document read: "Jason Caskey--One month from tonight, if you don't join us, you will receive your death warrant, and two days from then your death. By order the 'Skulls.'" The meetings of this original society were held in a barn; its members were boys from 11 to 15 years of age. The knowledge of this secret society has come out since Bertie disappeared. Of course he took two revolvers with him when he started out on his ventures. Every effort is being made to find him, and if found before he shall have accomplished some criminal exploit his parents will be greatly relieved.

MANY LEADEN WITNESSES.

Billy Porter to be Confronted by Invulnerable Physical Evidence.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.--"Shang" Draper, of No. 466 Sixth avenue, was visited on Thursday afternoon by Assistant District Attorney O'Byrne, Roomsdman Cross, of the Twenty-ninth precinct, and a carpenter. Colonel O'Byrne commanded the expedition, the carpenter did the hard work of the campaign, and Cross was present as a competent witness to identify any bits of evidence against Billy Porter, who is charged with killing Burger Walsh, which might be found on the premises.

To a reporter who called upon him, Colonel O'Byrne said that the first thing examined was the casing of the door leading from the bar into the billiard-room. It was very important that all the bullets fired during the affray in which Irving and Walsh were killed should be found. Two bullet-holes were found in the casing and one in the lath and plaster back of the stove. The carpenter tore away parts of the partition, and, rubbing the dust from his eyes, Colonel O'Byrne began searching among the ruins for fragments of the battered lead, like Schliemann looking for antiquities.

After more than an hour of hard work three balls were found near the door, and the invaders charged upon the billiard-room. A curious crowd gathered at the doors, wondering what was going on, but a stern looking policeman with a large club prevented the gratification of any morbid curiosity. In the walls of the billiard-room was found one bullet-hole. More ripping and tearing followed, and the ball was found flattened against a brick, having passed through a piece of lath. All the bullets fired during the affray are now in the possession of the people. Colonel O'Byrne says the trial will begin on Wednesday next in the Court of Oyer and Terminer.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

Carlisle Confident and a Lively Campaign Promised.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.--Representative Carlisle, of Kentucky, has arrived here, and proposes to remain till the Speakership question is decided. He thinks there will not be any other candidates than Messrs. Randall, Cox and himself, and that the question will be decided in three ballots. He claims to have assurances which guarantee his election, and expresses no doubt as to the final result. Mr. Cox will be here the 20th inst., and Mr. Randall is expected about the same time. Both will make their headquarters at Willards', while Mr. Carlisle has established himself at the Tiggs House. A lively campaign is anticipated, and the different headquarters will soon be in full blast.

Desperate Fight With a Burglar.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 12.--A man giving the name of John Gillespie was arrested in the house of Thomas Hurley at an early hour Saturday morning while in the act of emptying the pockets of a pair of pantaloons which had been taken from a chair in Mr. Hurley's bed room. The burglar was severely wounded in the struggle which preceded his capture. On being turned over to a policeman the prisoner drew a razor which he had hidden in the house and attempted to cut the officer, but was disarmed before he succeeded. Two men who were also in the house succeeded in escaping.

THE Presidential campaign, says the Cleveland Herald, is not far away. Democratic papers have already accused President Arthur of playing a banjo.

THE vote in New York on the proposition to abolish convict contract labor from State prisons, with but few districts to hear from, gives a majority of 234,976 in favor of the proposition.

REVENUE AGENT SWOPH recently suspended twenty gaugers and storekeepers from active service. A colored brother kicked and wrote an article against Swop. He was asked from Washington to send in his resignation.

THE diminished consumption of iron and steel in the United States is indicated by the fact that for nine months of the present year the total imports have been but 540,029 tons, against 950,905 tons in the corresponding period of last year.

COMMISSIONER DUDLEY's recommendation that none but attorneys in good standing shall hereafter be allowed to practice before the Pension Bureau, is regarded in Washington as an excellent measure. Persons with no education and no place of business have acted as pension agents, to the grief of those who were so unfortunate as to employ them.

JOHN G. CARLISLE has arrived in Washington. He has eighty votes pledged him for the Speakership, and expects to receive upwards of ninety on the first ballot and to be elected. He estimates Cox's strength at thirty-five votes and Randall's at sixty. It is claimed by the friends of Randall that the recent Democratic defeats have improved his chances.

DURING the last session of Congress the bill known as the Japanese indemnity bill was passed. The bill had been pressed before Congress for nearly twenty years by several attorneys, whose fees were contingent upon its passage. It now appears that the Japanese Government expected that the amount of indemnity, as well as interest for about twenty years, would be paid by Congress. As the bill passed it provided only for the return of the sum paid by the Japanese Government, the clause for the payment of interest having been struck out. It is said that on this account the Japanese Government declined to pay the full contingent fee as agreed upon. The attorneys in the case have sent a representative to Japan to ask that the full fee shall be paid them for their services.

The girls of Princeton, Indiana, have organized an anti-chewing gum society. Miss Ford, of the Irish World, is in Dublin distributing to the families of the murderers of Lord Edward Cavendish and Burke, the money collected for them in this country.

The latest proposition for the improvement of the harbor of Vicksburg is to bring the mouth of the Yazoo river to the front of the city. The project is said to be practicable.

A bridge over the Mississippi river at New Orleans, where the river is 2,407 feet wide, is projected. An engineer proposes seven spans of 300 feet each, one to be a draw. The piers are to be crescent-shaped, driven in clusters, and heavily capped and caued with iron. The depth of water will be no obstacle, as the piles can be spliced. The estimated cost is $13,000,000.

FINERY FOR FAIR CROWNS.

What such Persons as Princesses and the Like Wear in Headgear.

The last bonnet sent to the Princess of Wales was of terra-cotta velvet, capote shape, having on the left side three kittens' heads. By the way, the latest novelty for trimming felt hats is a tiny little gray mouse running up the crown, mistress pussy emerging from a bow of velvet. Alas! poor mousey, if you were alive, I would not give a sou for your life! The Grand Duchess Vladimir, of Russia, has ordered a series of bonnets, the most charming of which are a dark green velvet capote with panache of coral feathers, the folds of the velvet crown secured by two miniature pugs in carved wood, and a theatre bonnet which would make you hold your breath in ecstatic admiration, it's so perfect. Of ivory velvet, capote shape, the brim is slightly turned up and covered with sealskin; on the left side is placed a cockade of sealskin "oreilles d'ours," flat and pointed, lined with ivory velvet. Strings of ivory otoman, the crown of the capote is secured by a fine golden cord, and we golden pins and chairs attach the velvet folds here and there. Of elegant simplicity this bonnet is certainly the highest attainable note, and is called the Chapeau "Germaine."

The "Mailbrun" is another creation of totally different style, and will suit beauties of the dashing dazling Spanish type, high in crown, with broad brim, around the edge of which is placed a tiny bebe plisse of lace, shading the face. On the side a large bow of black velvet, secured by a jet dagger. Passing around the crown and knotted low on the neck in charming carelessness is a torsiade of canary ottoman velvet.

COUNTY POINTS.

SARDIS. Mr. Frank Bland and Miss Amanda Trigg visited relatives at Millersburg last week.

Mr. Henry Howard sold a bunch of fat hogs, fair to good packers, in Cincinnati at $4.50 per hundred, last week.

Tobacco is curling up nicely and some have been stripped. Fine color will not be so scarce as last season.

Suit & Boulden's mammoth house, the Arcade, will be illuminated on the nights of the 13th and 14th inst. Come out and see it and patronize the festival.

If that anglicized Greek word "baptize" had been expressed in English in the first editions of the new Testament, oceans of ink, reams of paper, and disputes infinite might have been spared.

Rev. F. S. Pollitt has undertaken the herculean task of reforming the politicians. (See his article in last week's BULLETIN.) Think of Sisyphus, dear brother, who was compelled to roll a huge stone to the top of the hill, which constantly recoiled, and made his task incessant, and don't be discouraged.

A pleasant party of ladies dined with Mrs. Ellen Morford on Wednesday last, consisting of Mrs. H. M. Pyles, Mrs. Dallas, and Misses Lizzie and Fannie Burrows, Bettie Pyles, Amanda Trigg and Phoebe Herndon. John Cole put on the young man and assisted his daughter in entertaining the guests. The cuisine was perfect and relished by all.

Some people know how to make their friends happy. We saw a young miss skip out of one of our fashionable resorts the other day, saying that Miss Mollie Fitzpatrick had upset her summer bonnet and made a nice fall with her own of it; holly, untranslatable to his Christian challenger, and so the duel of words was ended. Our Baptist friend, a linguist of no ordinary repute, doubtless employed the Peshito-Syriac or Ethiopic language in his reply.

A grape party—the boys all gallant and the girls all smiles, passed through our village on Saturday last, made up as follows: Miss Kate Burrows and her sister, Miss Ollie Bland and Lee Fox; Miss Madge Burrows and Wm. Gault; Miss Bettie Pyles and W. J. Chansior; Miss Nora Harris and W. T. Chansior; Miss Carrie Hunter and C. J. Arthur; Miss Florence Fleming and C. J. Arthur; Miss Bell Arthur and John Fleming. Grapes were gathered, "masses" made, and all returned home serenely happy.

Now, another debate is proposed. Hold! Enough! We should take care that we do not carry our religious controversies so far as to give the infidel the same advantage over us in arguments as that the ancient Pyrrhonists obtained over other sects in matters of philosophy. For all the sects of philosophers agreed in one thing, that of abusing each other. He therefore that abused them all round was of a majority, and as no sect got any praises except from the disciples of their own particular school. Such party paucity went for nothing.

Long sermons and the afterglows of many good dinners. She went to church in a neighboring village. The pastor spoke one hour and a quarter, the senior clerk stood up and read a paper, and the pastor had said in a few "inconsequential" remarks, consuming fifteen minutes; then other services occupied twenty minutes, and thereupon the junior elder and the deacons each had a few remarks to make, so it was three o'clock when she reached home with invited company. And her horror of horror! what should she discover on going to her kitchen but to find her old cook fast asleep, and her roast duck burnt to a crisp. She says what followed resembled anything but laus Deo—singing psalm to the god of triumph.

Budget: We learn that Alonzo Ellis and Henry Clark contemplate purchasing the property of John Culler, corner Second and Cherry streets, upon which they will erect a large tobacco warehouse.

Budget: Miss Mary Perry, of this city, was married to Mr. Lee Sullivan, of Kentucky, at the home of her parents on last Tuesday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Cockins. It was a quiet affair.

Miss Sophia Lipert, who was wounded while hunting grapes opposite Ripley, received sixteen stitches in her face. Her sister was wounded in the hand. W. W. Hughes is charged with having fired the careless shot which wounded the young ladies.

Society in this city. Col. B. has made a very valuable collection of mound relics within the past two years, some of them having been gathered as far south as the State of Mississippi, though the collection is, in the main, chiefly illustrative of the archaeology of this State. The Colonel was an early student of this branch of science, having been connected with the Perry expedition to Japan, and intimately associated with the ethnologist of that expedition, Dr. Greer. The rooms of the society are always open to persons desiring to examine these collections.

A Druggist's Story.

Mr. Isaac C. Chapman, Druggist, Newburg, N. Y., writes us: "I have for the past ten years sold several gross of Dr.
William Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I can say of it what I cannot say of any other medicine. I have never heard a customer speak of it but to praise its virtues in the highest manner. I have recommended it in a great many cases of whooping cough, with the happiest effects. I have used it in my own family for many years; in fact, always have a bottle in the medicine closet ready for CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.—Rose Drury sued her brother-in-law, Jacob Schnoberger, a well-known letter carrier, and his wife, for $5,000 damages for the alleged alienation of her husband's affections by her sister, Mrs. Schnoberger. The trial began Saturday, and Rose testified that she followed her husband to Schnoberger's house. "Mrs. Schnoberger then went over and sat on his knee," she continued, "and put her arms around his neck. He kissed her and she kissed him in return. It was a long kind of a kiss. I rushed in and my sister jumped up. I told them that was a nice way to act, and she said that I had the same right to kiss her husband. I told George to come home and he wouldn't."

AYER'S PILLS.
A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession. These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes:
"AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."
Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable."
Mexico, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The Rev. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the constipation, and have vastly improved my general health."
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.

Like an Evil Spirit.
In olden times it was thought that evil spirits came in through cracks and keyholes. The generally approved way to keep them out was to plug up the keyholes and stop the cracks with cotton. Notwithstanding these preventive measures, the evil things had their own way and often came in as they pleased.
So comes malaria now-a-days. We try to keep it out of the keyhole and it comes in by the crack. We stop up the crack, and lo! it comes from a leak in the plumbing, or an opening from some neglected drain, or from some unsuspected source and unguarded direction.
We cannot always keep malaria out, but we can give it battle and drive its effects from our system. If BROWN'S LEMON BITTERS is taken in time, malaria has not a ghost of a chance. This is the great family medicine. Your druggist sells it, and you ought to keep a bottle in the house.
